HISTORY OF THE PALACE

The Palace is the oldest frontier saloon in Arizona, and the most well-known and historic restaurant and bar in the state. Past patrons include Wyatt Earp, Virgil Earp, Doc Holliday and Big Nose Kate. Virgil was Prescott's Town Constable. Originally built in 1877, the Palace was destroyed in the Whiskey Row fire of 1900. Patrons moved the bar and lower back bar across the street and drank and watched Whiskey Row burn to the ground. It was rebuilt in 1901. Today, The Palace maintains its history, grandeur and old wild west atmosphere, is a favorite for locals, and attracts visitors from all over the world.
